A note from the production company:

Ladies & Gentlemen,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for attending today's showcase. 'Rewind' has been in the writing and planning stages for almost a year now, with this week seeing it begin its journey from the page to the stage.

Over the past few days, the cast and production team have worked incredibly hard to put together this showcase for our debut production. As you will see, today's production is a fully staged version of the play, with the white cloth dividing the performance and off-stage space.

Today's showcase features some of Waterford's finest young performers. We were delighted to have the opportunity to work with them and we thank them sincerely for their support and commitment.

It is our intention that Crooked Lane Productions will strive to achieve professional standard shows with Rewind and with future productions. With this in mind, we thank you, our audience, for your continuous support, and we look forward to seeing you all in the future.

A collection box will be placed at the door following today's performance. This is a collection for an entirely voluntary contribution, and all donations will go to fund the future performances of 'Rewind'

We hope you enjoy the performance.

Yours,
Jamie Nagle.

PRODUCTION

Crooked Lane Productions proudly presents 'REWIND' - an entirely original drama written and directed by Waterford actor and aspiring director Jamie Nagle. Set in Dublin in the mid 1980's, the play tells the story of Sarah, a young girl who becomes pregnant at the age of seventeen. This deeply emotional drama traces Sarah's story and the difficulties she faces in the weeks that follow.

The Summer of 2013 has seen the play move from the page to the stage, beginning with a series of workshops, where a group of actors began working on the script and developing the characters. REWIND promises to be an incredibly touching story from a very talented cast and production team. More information on the production will follow soon. For further details, contact Jamie via e-mail at jamielnagle@gmail.com.
