Dear Ladies and Gentlemen, Boys and Girls,

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to the Theatre Royal for the David Hennessy Junior Stage Schools' production of Honk Junior! As I said in the programme of our variety show last June, this school is not about me, its about the kids. I am absolutely delighted to be here with these wonderful kids tonight who range from 4 years to 16 years to celebrate all their hard work over the last few months. I set up this school to give kids the opportunity to make new friends, build confidence, have a fun time whilst at the end of term be given the chance to perform on the Theatre Royal stage. It's such an honour for me to be here tonight as it was in a school just like this that I started in myself. I ask you to give all the kids your full support with their show as I know so many of them are so nervous. As you are well aware, it's very daunting to walk out on stage and perform in front of so many people. Even today adults find it difficult so imagine how the kids must feel. The school was never set up to find a star, it's about enjoyment and having a fantastic time. I ask you to applaud them sincerely and congratulate them on what they have achieved. Seeing the smile on their faces is what it's all about. I would like to thank all the parents, guardians and friends of the kids for your kind support over the last few months and I cant wait for our new term to start. I hope you enjoy the performance and look forward to seeing you all again soon. Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and a Peaceful New Year.

Yours gratefully,
David Hennessy.

The David Hennessy Junior Stage School which is run by David himself was opened to give children the chance to build confidence, make friends and have a fun and enjoyable past time whilst at the end of term having the wonderful experience of appearing on the Theatre Royal Stage. The school caters for four year olds to sixteen year olds which is split into four different age groups. This has created an opportunity to embrace the wide array of talent in Waterford as well as offering the youth an exciting recreational activity.

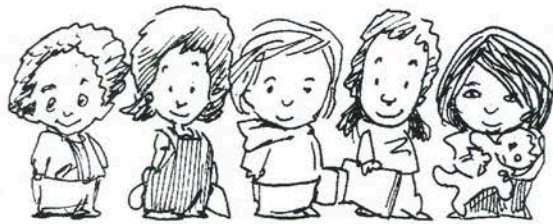

All new students are welcome and no previous experience is necessary.

INTO THE WOODS...

Into the Woods blends various familiar fairy tales with an original story of a childless Baker and his Wife, who catalyze the action of the story by attempting to reverse a curse on their family in order to have a child.

In the first act, the characters set out to achieve their goal of living "Happily Ever After" through familiar routes - Cinderella goes to the Ball and captures the heart of Prince Charming, Jack climbs the Beanstalk and finds a land of Giants and Gold, Little Red Riding Hood survives her clash with the wolf at Grandma's house, and Rapunzel manages to escape her tower with the aid of a handsome prince who climbs her long hair. The Baker and his Wife move through their stories while pursuing their own goal - the witch who keeps Rapunzel (revealed to be the Baker's sister) has put the curse on his house, and agrees to lift it if the Baker and his Wife can find the ingredients to help her reverse a spell which her mother has laid on her, keeping her old and ugly. Those ingredients are: A Slipper As Pure As Gold, which the Baker's wife gets from Cinderella, A Cow As White As Milk, which the Baker buys from Jack in exchange for the fateful magic beans, A Cape As Red As Blood, which the Baker gets from Little Red Riding Hood in exchange for freeing her and Granny from the Wolf, and Hair As Yellow As Corn, which they get from Rapunzel. The ingredients are gathered, and the spell works, stripping the Witch of her power, but restoring her beauty. At the end of Act I, all characters seem poised to live "Happily Ever After".

Act Two, however, deals with the consequences that traditional fairy tales conveniently ignore. What does one do with a dead Giant in the back yard? Does marrying a Prince really lead to a happy and fulfilling life? Is carving up the wolf the solution? Is the Giant always wrong? In Act Two, all the characters must deal with what happens AFTER "Happily Ever After". As they face a genuine threat to their community, they realize that all actions have consequences, and their lives are inescapably interdependent, but also that that interdependence is their greatest strength.
