SOMEONE
WHO'LL WATCH OVER ME

DARREN MALONE

AS "MICHAEL"

Darren started acting at the very young age of six where he performed with Little Red Kettle in their first ever show "The Four Euclids of Squid...". Through the years Darren has performed with many local companies, with appearances in Bowler Hat's "Bouncers", Ranting Rebels' "The Lieutenant of Inishmore", Ignite Productions' "Sister Act" 1 & 2, Theatre Box's "Grease" & "Westside Story", Gasworks' "The Staff Room" and has recently toured with Stagemad's production of "Somebody and Nobody". Darren also runs Happy Robot Productions, who are presenting "Someone Who'll Watch Over Me" to you tonight and hopes that you'll enjoy the show.

TIMOTHY FARDEY

AS "ADAM"

Prior to his first portrayal of 'Adam' in "Someone Who'll Watch Over Me" with Beretta Productions in 2015, Timothy, a Waterford native, had recently returned from Cork where he studied Theatre & Performance under Belinda & Ian Wild and played 'Cory Kinchela' and 'Jaques De Bois' in Kinsale College's productions of "The Shaugraun" and "As You Like It" respectively. In 2012 he appeared in "Days of our Youth" with the Dungarvan Dramatic Society. Locally, he has worked with the Waterford Dramatic Society both onstage and backstage and in 2013 played 'Mr. Brown' in Beretta Productions' "Dogs".

GERRY KANE

AS "EDWARD"

After moving back to Ireland from London in 2001, this Dublin native settled down in Waterford - possibly the best decision ever made! His previous roles include 'Francis Fryer' in "Calamity Jane", 'Finian' in "Finian's Rainbow", 'Dr. Spivey' in "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest", 'The Bull McCabe' in "The Field", 'Richard Harkins' in "The Seafarer", 'Zangler' in "On The Razzle", 'Everard' in "Blackwater Angel" and 'The Proprietor' in this year's "Assassins" in Garter Lane.

A keen guitarist and songwriter, Gerry is a regular at Central Arts monthly Open Mic Night. Gerry is delighted to be part of this production and hopes you enjoy one of the great plays in the Irish theatrical canon.

CLARE SMITH

DIRECTOR

Clare has been involved in theatre for a number of years and has loved every minute! Her backstage roles include stage managing Hugh Leonard's "A Life" with Waterford Dramatic Society and directing a number of productions with the 'Vat Pack' - a Mullinavat drama group - over the past year or so. She recently tread the boards in Dats De Y Productions' "Assassins" in which she played the anarchist 'Emma Goldman'. Clare is delighted to be involved as director for "Someone Who'll Watch Over Me" with Happy Robot Productions.

PEAR FLAN

Pastry:

200g plain flour
125g unsalted butter
pinch of salt
1 egg
1 tsp of baking powder
25ml cold water

Pear Filling:

5 pears in thin slices
1 tbs unsalted butter
1 tbs lemon juice
2 tbs sugar

Ingredients for topping:
125ml double cream
2 egg yolks
2 tbs sugar

Heat oven to 170C/150C fan/gas 3 • Mix water, flour, butter, salt, egg and baking powder • Knead until it's soft and not sticky • Roll out dough on well-floured surface to 1cm thick • Place dough on a baking tray & prick bottom of tart with fork • Bake pastry in the oven for about 20mins • Make syrup by melting the butter with lemon juice & sugar in a small saucepan • Remove from the heat • When the tart bottom has chilled, lay the pear slices in concentric circles and sprinkle syrup over • Bake for 20mins until pastry is pale golden brown • Whisk together double cream, egg yolks & sugar until thick and creamy • When pastry is ready pour the cream over • Bake the cake in the oven for next 10 mins until mixture just set.
