THE STORY

THE ACTION OF THE PLAY TAKES PLACE IN U.S.A.

The story is of a simple people living, loving, quarrelling against the background of the birth of a State — Oklahoma. Aunt Eller and her neice live on a farm. Curley, a young cowboy, is in love with the neice Laurey, who pretends not to notice. The aunt, on the other hand, encourages Curley to persevere. Jud, the general factotem, with the shady past, has vain notions about Laurey. An argument between Jud and Curley ends with guns but no harm is done. This frightens Laurey into the knowledge that she really loves Curley — but she is in fear of Jud. She has a dream, when the ballet dances her fate.

The trio, Will Parker, Ali Hakim and Ado Annie, provide the comedy. Will is in love with Ado, who "cain't say no" to any man, while Ali has also gained her affections.

The show ends happily for all — to the rousing strains of "Oklahoma," which has at last emerged as a State with farmers and cowboys at last united as "friends."
