A Message from Ms Betts

A Chairde,

Thar cheann na ndaltaí agus na múinteoiri I gColáiste De la Salle, féaraim fáilte is fiche romhaibh uilig don léiriu seo den cheolchoirm cáiliuil 'The Addams Family'.

The Addams Family is a musical comedy with music and lyrics by Andrew Lippa and the book by Marshall Brickman and Rick Elice. The show is based upon the Addams Family characters created by Charles Addams in his single-panel gag cartoons, which depict a ghoulish American family with an affinity for all things macabre.

Welcome to De la Salle College for this production of 'The Addams Family' the 40th musical production staged by the College since the very first one in 1978. We hope you enjoy the performance and are very grateful to you for your continued support year after year. Without your support it would not be possible to continue staging productions such as these and we appreciate you being here.

The cast is made up of students from De la Salle College, St. Angelss Ursuline and Abbey Community College. Thanks to each and every member of the cast for the huge effort you have all made in rehearsals since last July and we hope you enjoy and benefit from being part of a very unique opportunity and experience in your young lives.

Sincere thanks also to all the staff members, parents and others involved in this production. Without your hard work and dedication it would be impossible. Enjoy the show and thanks again for your support.

The Addams Family

The Addams Family are not just a strange lot, they are very different. When girl from strange family meets boy from normal family and the two fall in love there are hilarious consequences with everything pointing to complete disaster!! Daughter Wednesday, now eighteen years old, has found herself experiencing a surprising new sensation, one that frightens both her and her family....she has fallen in love. Lucas Beineke, the object of her affections, comes from a seemingly normal family, and he and his parents Mal and Alice are on their way to the Addams' estate to become better acquainted with the family over dinner. Brother Pugsley, who has been largely ignored since Wednesday's involvement with Lucas, begins to miss the attention his sister previously paid to him and pleads with her to torture him once more. Meanwhile, mother Morticia finds herself conflicted over her ever-maturing daughter's newfound feelings, while oblivious father Gomez simply wishes things would remain the way they were. As they learn to relate to the Beinekes and cope with Wednesday's romance, one thing is certain: the Addams family will never be the same!

VICKI GRAHAM

Director

This is Vicki's ninth consecutive year working with the De La Salle College show, having choreographed 'Oliver' and 'Little Shop of Horrors', and moving to the role of Director for each consecutive show. She is delighted to be back again this year, and although she still has an input with the choreography of some of the numbers, her main role is that of the director.

Vicki has directed many shows over the years in Waterford and surrounding areas, while also running her own stage school in Tramore and Mooncoin.

She is also no stranger to gracing the boards herself, havng won numerous awards for her on stage antics.

She would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone at De La Salle for their support and the talented cast for all their hard work. "This show is without doubt a team effort and has, as always, been a pleasure to work on."

FEARGHAL O'CONNOR

Musical Director

Fearghal holds a BMus from the CIT Cork School of Music, Kodály Certification from the American Kodály Institute and a Masters of Education (M.Ed Kodály emphasis) from Loyola University Maryand, USA. He is also a doctoral student at the Royal Irish Academy of Music, studying for a doctorate of music performance in choral conducting (DMusPerf).

Fearghal is founder and conductor of the multi award winning Cork Institute of Technology Chamber Choir. He is also the conductor of the Lismore Choir in Co. Waterford and the St Declans boys national school, Wateford, the Wexford Male Voice Choir, Clontempo Choir, the Wexford Gateway Orchestra, Trinity Orchestra Dublin. While studying in America, he was fortunate to work with the Children's Chorus of Maryland and the American Kodály Children's Choir.

Fearghal has worked in many primary schools in Cork and Waterford for the past number of years giving musicianship classes. He also continues to give Kodály based workshops for the Waterford teachers centre.

Fearghal has also lectured on the Early Years Education degree course at the Cork Institute of Technology. He was also offered a teaching fellowship at the Royal Irish Academy of Music, teaching musicianship classes, working with the Academys ensembles, and tutor for three string quartets as part of the Academys new chamber music courses, working closely with the RTÉ Contempo Quartet.

JENNIFER WHITE

Choreographer

Jennifer has been involved in musical theatre from a young age. She first caught the acting bug when she appeared on stage in the local Waterford pantomime at the age of eight and has not left the stage since. She has appeared in many Waterford shows such as Some like it Hot, Annie (Lily St Reges), Stags and Hens (Carol), Mack and Mabel (Mabel Normand), Sister Act and most recently Oklahoma (Ado Annie) to name a few. She has been involved with choreographing and helping organise the De La Salle show since she started work in the college six years ago. She is very proud of The Addams Family cast and wishes them all the best of luck in this year's production.

Laura Forsey

Production Co-ordinator

The De La Salle College musical has always had a special place in Laura's heart as she played the lead role of the Narrator in the college's production of 'Joseph' in 2000. Laura has been involved in local theatre from a young age. She played her first role at the age of seven as Gretel in De La Salle Musical Society's production of 'The Sound of Music'. She has taken part in many local productions since then, including 'Annie,' 'The King and I', 'Oliver' and 'Little Shop of Horrors'. She has achieved gold medal standard in Speech and Drama exams awarded from the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts. Laura would like to congratulate the cast on their hard work and she hopes that each one of them takes away many fond memories of The Addams Family.
